

How Long

Mary Ann was my dream, the goddess of my life
I worshipped the sight of Mary Ann
But I treated her bad - she up and walked away
An' I can't get along without Mary Ann

I tried to track her down just to see her again
Searched for her all over the place
But now I live in the gutter and I drink till I'm blind
Trying to forget her face

Because Mary Ann was my dream, she was the goddess of my life
I worshipped the sight of Mary Ann
But I treated her bad - she up and walked away
An' I can't get along without Mary Ann

Now my clothes are ragged and my shoes are worn
I wander on from town to town
Ain't got a single friend for more than a minute
My sorrow always takes them down

Mary Ann was my dream, an' yes, the goddess of my life
I worshipped the sight of Mary Ann
But I treated her bad - she up and walked away
An' I can't get along without Mary Ann

Lost and alone, shivering in the rain
No one wants to hear my song
No pity spent on me, no tears are shed my way
How long? How long?

Mary Ann was my dream, the goddess of my life
I worshipped the sight of Mary Ann
But I treated her bad - she up and walked away
An' I can't get along without Mary Ann
