

This is how it happened, honest

kenny did a slow move timed his steppin' slow groovin' cool like a smooth walkin' leopard
dressin' like a bobcat
glidin'
never looked behind but boppin' up
comin' down the street
walkin' eddie
razor sharp like a switchblade shinin'

"hey, man - where you been"
kenny looked around just then "must'a looked all over town" eddie walked up slowin' down sayin'
"lookin' fer you, man, did you f'get" had his piece in his hand he said "you lost the bet" (he was fixin' ta wax `im there) kenny backed a hand through his hair the other in a pocket of his leather coat his eyes on a lump formin' in eddie's throat "c'mon" eddie said "don't play with me, man" so kenny shot `im with the .38 in his other hand eddie quit shakin' - shot a bullet in the sky (now Roy's Bar and Grill is missing a Y) an' all the people crowded starin' watchin' eddie die `cept for kenny did a slow move off to the side slidin' off to be away it's time to be remote with a hole in the pocket of his leather coat
